

JOSHUA EXPEDITIONS

FUNDRAISING

FUNDRAISING IDEAS

Joshua Expeditions is not specifically promoting any of these ideas. These suggestions have simply been passed along from other groups that have traveled with JE.

- Mail letters to your friends and family letting them know what you are doing. Also send letters to businesses in your community (such as banks, utilities, etc.), as they often give funds at the end of the year toward service projects. Be creative in how you present your trip, and enclose a stamped, addressed return envelope for more responses. Sample letters have been provided to give you ideas about what to write.
- Ask your pastor if you can speak to the congregation about your trip and its purpose. You could also ask specific Sunday school classes and groups to sponsor you.
- Ask to speak at community groups like Kiwanis, Rotary, and Civitans.
- Organize a group garage sale. People will often donate their own unwanted items to help groups raise funds. Gather donated items and hold a garage sale at a prime location like your school or church. Divide the proceeds among all the group members who work the sale. Be sure to ask for items from people on your letter-writing list.
- Hold a weekly bake sale or monthly car wash. You could also sell bottles of water, candy bars, or slices of pizza. A small startup investment often yields great rewards! Be sure to announce the event at your church and school.
- Organize an auction of services and handmade items. Advertise within your community for greater awareness.
- Ask your school administration if you can have a “uniform free” day and sell passes to fellow students.
- Hold a drive for loose change donations. You’ll be surprised how quickly pennies and nickels can add up!
- Offer yourself as a “servant for the day” to families and the elderly. Let them know for what you are raising funds and offer to provide yard work, babysitting, or cleaning services in exchange for a donation to your trip.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMITTING DONATIONS

- Be sure to provide your donors with the information they will need to make a payment on your behalf. They will need to know the Traveler’s Name, School or Organization and Destination. The Expedition number if helpful, but not required. They do not need your login information in order to pay online.
 - Credit Card Payments can be made on our website by visiting www.joshuaexpeditions.org and clicking on “Make a Payment”. They will be asked for the traveler information and their payment information. Once they have submitted the payment online, they will receive a confirmation receipt from us. When the payment is applied to the individual traveler account, if their group is setup as “parent billing”, the traveler will receive a confirmation email as well.
 - Checks need to be made payable to Joshua Expeditions. They can either be given to the traveler or mailed to us directly. Include the Expedition Number, or School Name & Destination, and the traveler name on the memo line of the check. Mail checks to us at Joshua Expeditions, 6841 Virginia Pkwy Ste 103#452, McKinney, TX 75071. The cancelled check will serve as the donor’s receipt. If the group is setup as parent billing, the traveler will receive a confirmation email when we apply the payment to their account.
- Please keep in mind, the traveler is responsible for making sure all payments are received by Joshua Expeditions. Late fees may be assessed to the account if payment is not received by the payment due dates. Accounts are required to be up to date in order to make travel arrangements on a traveler’s behalf. We recommend giving your donors a deadline of at least two weeks prior to the payment due dates.
- Be sure to only send donations that will cover the price of the trip. Any overpayments resulting from donations will be refunded in the form in which the payment was received. Please refer to our payment & trip policies for more information regarding overpayments and refunds.

DON’T FORGET TO THANK YOUR CONTRIBUTORS!

Always write thank you notes to sponsors for their prayer and financial support, and remember to send a summary of your experience to them after the trip is over letting them know what happened and what you learned. Include a small souvenir with your note. Candy, post cards, and traditional items from the destination city or country are great ideas. Arrange to speak with groups who sponsored you and present a report with photos and stories from the trip. People will want to know what God did in your heart and in the lives of those you met while traveling.
